M.O.P. Award:

This award goes to the Most Outstanding Player of the entire tournament.

Congratulations to Lonzo Rand of Houston Flight. He was hands down the best player/prospect of the entire event. Played well on both sides of the ball and was a big-time factor for his team.

Mr. Sharp Shooter Award:

This award goes to the best Deep Ball Marksmen of the tournament.

Congratulations to Ethan Yancy of RL9-Willis. He made a total of 13 trey balls and shot at 50% from behind the arc.

All-Tourney Teams & Awards

Clamp Gawd Award:

This award goes to the best overall defender of the tournament. This prospect was all over the floor every game. Held opponents in check when they stepped into the lane and also played tough on-ball defense as well. Congratulations to Kingsley Ijeoma of RL9-Willis. He had 13 blocked shots altered triple the amount of that tipped a lot of passes out of bounds and had 4 steals.

Team Reinforcement:

The team with the most fan support for the entire weekend was between RL9, Grind Time Elite, and East Houston Ballers. Thank you to all the parents, fans, and acquaintances who came to support the teams.

Shoe Heat Award:

There was a lot of heat in the facility the entire weekend. For this award, we went to Twitter to let the fans decide who the winner was. Whoever had the most likes by midnight on the first day of the event was the winner. This year's winner of the shoe heat is the University of St. Thomas assistant coach Robert Byrd, congratulations.
