

REVIEWS WITH ROB | CLEARBROOK VS DICKINSON

BY ROB CARROLL 2/1/2022

Have you ever seen a heavyweight fight like Ali vs Fraizer, Tyson vs Lewis, or Wilder vs Fury? Well this is what Clearbrook vs Dickinson felt like as the (27-4) Wolverines took on the (26-3) Gators. With Clearbrook already having won the first matchup at Dickinson, I wanted to see what changes coach Jason Wilson would come up with to pull out the victory. From the start you could see that Dickinson wanted to attack the paint vigorously. 2022 Texas A&M football commit Patrick Williams Jr. ignited the crowd with 3 spectacular dunks. 2023 Zyon Little seemed to get all the rebounds in a low scoring first quarter that ended in favor of Dickinson 16-11. In the second quarter, Dickinson changed up their defense from 2-3 zones to 3-2 zones to try and confuse the Wolverines. Clearbrook handled it well and with timely shooting from 2023 pg Marcus Millender and 2023 g Ja'Michael Young, they clawed back into the game to finish the half tied at 27 all.

In the second half, without their emotional leader 2022 pg Kemaury Millender, who was plagued by foul trouble the whole game, Dickinson looked to take full control. 2024 pg Qasim Boyd played a heck of a floor game. He looked poised and unrattled in a hostile environment. Every time there was a play to be made, he was right on the spot. Texas A&M football commit Donovan Green also played a vital role in the paint. You could tell Green's presence was missed in the first game. Clearbrook fought valiantly with Marcus and % 2023 w Broderick Jackson Jr. both hitting big back to back 3 point shots, that momentarily gave the Wolverines a lead. However, in the last 90 seconds, Zyon Little made all the plays against his former team. Little came with back to back steals and lay ups that would seal a 58-52 victory for Dickinson giving them the district lead. Clearbrook was led by Marcus Millender with 12 points, 5rebs, 6 assists and 2 steals. Kemaury Millender with 9 points and 5 rebs. Dickinson was led by Patrick Williams Jr with 16 points and 8 rbs. Zyon Little with 15 points, 11 rebs and 3 steals. Qasim Boyd with 10 points and 4 rebs.
